TRINITY 6, HAMILTON 2.

A Tremendous Brace in the Second Half Wins the Victory.

After being outplayed at every point in the first half principally through lack of systematized team work, Trinity took a wonderful brace in the final period of the game at Trinity field, Saturday afternoon, and by a whirlwind finish beat Hamilton at football by the score of 6 to 2. Hamilton's only score was on a safety made by Trinity, when the visiting collegians blocked a quarterback kick near Trinity's goal and the pigskin rolled over the line, Bob Mason falling on it.

Trinity's reversal of form was a wonderful piece of work, after the game looked all but won by Hamilton, and when Dougherty's men took the ball down the field on repeated line plunges and short end runs, carrying the Hamilton men off their feet, the crowd, which was 99 per cent. Trinity support, went wild with joy. The contest was another demonstration of the open style of play made possible by the new rules, and punting, long end runs and forward passing predominated except in the last ten minutes of play, when Trinity found a weak spot in Hamilton's line and ground it into pulp.

Principally because Trinity failed to get together and play a connected team game. Hamilton showed up strong in the first half and looked like a winner. The team made long gains on Trinity's poor interference, and worse tackling, several times a Hamilton player getting by three and four men before he was brought to earth.

Donnelly opened the game at 3:05 by kicking to Smith on Hamilton's 35-yard line. A forward pass by Holly to White was the first play and it was good for 15 yards.

Smith was sent through Trinity's line for short gains and when Hamilton was forced to punt Pond caught the ball but was downed on an attempted end run. Pond was forced to punt and Dougherty caught the ball. Hamilton blocked end runs and line plunges and Pond punted from the 35-yard line to middle field.

An end run for 20 yards by Holly and a forward pass by McLean gave Hamilton distance, but Donnelly caught the pass and gave the ball to Pond, who gained 5 yards around the left end. He was forced to punt and Holly made 5 yards on a short end run. After Trinity got the ball on a punt line bucking availed nothing and Pond kicked the pigskin to the center of the field.

The ball changed hands twice on fumbles by Pond and Smith. Hamilton's fumble was on a delayed pass and when Trinity got the ball Maxson bucked the line for 15 yards. Pond was sent around the ends for short gains. Pond punted to Welch, who made a 35-yard run around the left end. Pond downing him on a fine tackle after he had eluded other Trinity men. The ball was on Trinity's 17-yard line and Hamilton tried a drop kick, losing ground when the ball went low. On the next punt Dougherty got the ball. Trying for an end run, Pond lost ground because of poor interference by the tackles.

With the ball dangerously near Trinity's goal a quarterback kick went low and the leather bounded over Trinity's line. Mason being forced to fall on it for a safety. Score, Hamilton 2, Trinity 0. Trinity kicked off from the 25-yard line and Mason, on a fast tackle, was knocked out. On the next play Donnelly caught his man and carried him down the field for 10 yards, but the "down" was allowed from the first point of tackle. White punted over Trinity's line and this gave the local collegians a kick-off from the 25-yard line.

Trinity showed signs of improvement toward the close of the first half and Dougherty found the line for 5 yards. Pond was forced to punt and Holly made an end run of 23 yards, being downed by Donnelly on Trinity's 30-yard line. Punting by Pond and Holly kept the ball moving up and down the field and Mason was again winded on a hard tackle. The half ended when Donnelly tackled Holly, who was trying an end run, on the side line, the ball being on Trinity's 40-yard line.

Neither side made a change in the lineup, but when the second half was begun on White's kick-off to Pond, Trinity's boys began to work like Trojans and had their opponents on the run. Pond broke through the line on the first formation for a 25-yard run and fierce plunges by Donnelly gave Trinity 10 yards more. Pond punted to Hamilton's 15-yard line and Maxson got the ball on a fumble by White. Three successive line plunges by Trinity sent Donnelly over for a touchdown and Pond kicked the goal. Score, Trinity 6, Hamilton 2.

Trinity had the ball almost continually and made better gains than Hamilton for the balance of the game. After White kicked off, Trinity got the ball on downs, and Mason went around the end for 7 yards. Donnelly was sent through the line and was knocked out, but quickly recovered. Both sides resorted to punting and Trinity got the ball on her 40-yard line. Line plunges netted 10 yards and Maxson went around for 12 more on a delayed pass.

Hamilton's line was weakening and Trinity went through successively, taking the ball to the opposing team's 25-yard line. Hamilton held stubbornly here and Pond was forced to punt. Holly punted to Trinity's 30-yard line, a fine kick. A fumble lost the ball to Trinity and Holly again punted to Trinity's 15-yard line.

With the ball in Trinity's possession, Mason went through the line for 8 yards, but was knocked out for a minute. Donnelly tried the same play with success and Off made a gain of 8 yards on a short end run. Pond punted to Holly, and the latter was downed in his tracks. Pond then caught Holly's return punt and flew around the line for 15 yards. A terrific line plunge sent Donnelly through the center of Hamilton's line for 7 yards more.

COLLEGE MEETING.

Speeches by Political Leaders of Hartford.

There was a large college meeting in Alumni Hall yesterday at 9:15 to hear the following speakers: Charles Goodwin, Everett J. Lake, Edward W. Hooker and Mayor Henney.

The object of the meeting was to get students to work in to-day's elections so that they might get an insight into modern politics, to work for clean elections and the best men.

Mr. Hooker, republican candidate for representative from Hartford, spoke first. He said in part that there were two great games, politics and football. He then compared the methods of developing a good political machine and a good football team. He spoke principally of the need of college men in politics and emphasized the fact that it was not right to sit back and not learn methods and then object because the right man was not nominated. Every man should take an active part in all political activities and back up his party the way college men back up a football team. His comparison of politics was in this way, if every man in Hartford could play on the Trinity football team we would have the fat man's club putting up their president for full back, the street sweepers would want a representative on the argument that they could sweep the gridiron the way they did the streets. There would be men of Bryan's stamp who would show that the football weighed five ounces when one side had it and fifty pounds when the other side had it. The rich man would try to buy his place. The socialist would put forward the theory that it would be best to cut the ball into eleven parts and each man take a piece. This shows how necessary it is to have a good organization in a football team with undergraduate and graduate committees, coaches, etc. The same holds true in politics. People should be taught the rules of politics. The people of this district did not need a machine this year; they were intelligent enough to nominate Dr. Luther, a man whom they knew would work for the best interests of all and a man whom the people could trust.

Mr. Lake, republican candidate for lieutenant governor then spoke in behalf of himself and the men on the ticket to thank the students in advance for their work. Mr. Lake coached two of Trinity's football teams and when the season was over he asked to be elected a Trinity man. He said it did not matter to which party our inclinations were attached, we should work for the elevation of that party.

Mayor Henney, the last speaker said there was a great amount of discussion in the papers about college men in politics. The reason there are not more is because the percentage of college graduates compared to the total population was small. He said that Dr. Luther had set an example which would be followed, in that he was the first college

President Luther.

(Leslie's Weekly.)

The republicans of Hartford have set a high standard for membership in the Connecticut Legislature by their nomination of Dr. Flavel S. Luther the president of Trinity College, as senator from the First District of that city. His candidacy was fostered by Trinity alumni, and Trinity undergraduates watched the polls and brought out voters. Though this is Dr. Luther's entrance into active politics, he has always been interested in public affairs, and is regarded as a man of practical ideas. In the educational field his special bent is toward mechanical studies, and he is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. In the event of his election—and the nomination in his case is regarded as equivalent to an election—much is expected from him in the way of advancing educational interests in the state. Of plain and simple tastes, President Luther is popular alike with undergraduates and the general body of citizens. He is a good speaker and has a keen wit. He is prominent in philanthropic work, and his marked advocacy of the cause of labor has won for him a warm place in the hearts of Hartford workmen.

Those who wish to do so may obtain their attendance records from Mr. Sutcliffe on Mondays, from 4 to 4:30 o'clock and on Saturdays from 10:45 to 11:00.

In the "New York Herald" for last Sunday there appeared a long account of Trinity social life and the prominence of Trinity men in Hartford society.

The first rehearsal of the Glee Club will be held to-night, November 6th at 6:30, in No. 20 Jarvis Hall. A full attendance is requested.

TO ALUMNI.

THE TRIPOD is published for the Alumni even more than for the Undergraduates. With this in mind we are striving to produce a paper which shall be interesting and necessary to Graduates, and also to reach as large a number as possible. We are very largely dependent on the Alumni both for our moral and financial support. If you are not already a subscriber will you kindly give this matter your attention?

"NOW THEN—TRINITY!"

EDITORIAL.

A large proportion of the Trinity undergraduates have spent the day in watching polls in the interests of the "cleaner politics movement." Some of Dr. Luther's opponents have said that he sent these men down to work for his election. This is not true in any degree. The college men took up the work without any thought of helping Dr. Luther's cause. Their one purpose was to make our elections what they should be.

It certainly is a most propitious sign to see how college men, who, as a class, have formerly maintained an attitude of aloofness towards politics, are now taking such an active part in this vital interest of our country. College men figured prominently in the election of Jerome in New York. This year Yale students are doing the work in New York which Trinity men are doing in Hartford.

There is no doubt that this influence of college men, thinkers, with their higher ideals, will be a powerful factor for good in our politics, which for a time seemed to be a matter of money instead of quality. Let every Trinity man carry back to his home and into his future life the feeling that his individual attention and interest is required in politics. Let him be a power for good to the best of his ability and he will be doing as Trinity men do everywhere—the best he possibly can for his country.

The game to have been played with the Worcester Tech football team, October 20, will be played to-morrow at 4 P. M.

TRINITY 6, HAMILTON 2.

A Tremendous Brace in the Second Half Wins the Victory.

George Buck caught Pond's forward pass and Trinity made her distance on fierce line plunging. Mason was sent around the end for a gain and Trinity was pounding Hamilton's line to pieces when the game ended with the pigskin on Hamilton's 7-yard line. In another minute Trinity might have scored another touchdown.

Notes of the Game.

On the whole, the team showed a decided reversal in form from its style of play of a week before. The whole first half was a "misfit," in the words of an official. Poor judgment was used in running the team, and when line plunges would have brought gains, ground was lost by vain attempts at end runs. On the other hand the defence was lamentably weak, the ends being drawn in time and again, while Holly and others of the Hamilton team, taking advantage of this fact, made big gains by end runs. The right side of our line was poor in defense. The Hamilton men broke through repeatedly and stopped plays at their start. After Coach Landefeld had shown the team its mistakes, a fresh start was made with the result that Trinity changed defeat into victory.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.
In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.
